La table qui suit présente la liste des incipit musicaux, selon le procédé mis au point par Bruce Gustafson et Matthew Leshinskie (A thematic locator for the works of Jean-Baptiste Lully, New York, Performer's Editions, 1989).

Principes généraux :

- le 1 représente la tonique, le 7 la sensible ; la barre de mesure est matérialisée par un espace ;
- lorsqu'un motet se décompose en plusieurs sections, clairement matérialisées par une double barre ou un point d'orgue, nous avons pris en compte l'incipit de chaque section. Les caractères romains sont utilisés pour les incipit du début de chaque œuvre tandis que ceux en italiques le sont pour ceux qui apparaissent au cours du motet ;
- en règle générale, nous avons codé la partie vocale supérieure de chaque section ;
- lorsque qu'une ritournelle instrumentale précède l'entrée vocale, les deux incipit sont pris en compte, même lorsqu'ils sont très proches ;
- lorsque deux parties se répondent rapidement, les deux entrées sont codées ; leurs incipit sont parfois très courts ;
- lorsque deux parties instrumentales entrent en dialoguant suivies de la voix qui reprend le début de l'énoncé du premier instrument, nous n'avons encodé que l'entrée de la voix. Tel est le cas notamment du motet de Lorenzani Amor Jesu tu dulcis es [PM.499] :

11 552 3	entrée du second violon
55 111 777 666	réponse du premier violon
11 552 33 23 171 7	entrée de la voix

Le dernier incipit est le seul à paraître dans la table.

- certains motets de la première période ne sont pas mesurés ;
- les incipit des motets dont il perdure plusieurs versions divergent parfois uniquement au regard de la place des barres de mesures ; toutes les formes rencontrées sont indexées ;
- contrairement aux principes du procédé Gustafson-Leshinskie, les incipit majeurs et mineurs sont mêlés et présentés sans aucune distinction ;
- les incipit sont classés par ordre numérique croissant ; l'espace entre deux chiffres est équivalent à « 0 » et précède tous les autres chiffres. Ainsi, un incipit commençant par « 1 1 2 » sera classé avant celui qui commence par « 11 2 » ou « 112 ».
